After that

By the same token, for the prescient readership of the preponderant journal a new-sprung constellation of researchers meets the eye having thoughts and viewpoints in scientific pollination with the minds of those who determine to acquire the knowledge lesson and imbibe the research precocities the quill of the participated researchers and scholars ensconces in the actual edition.

That a conglomeration of research and studies the current edition culls ramifies into two axes : the first as occasional and the second as universal ; having such a convention the journal exerts itself to run in parallel with and pays heed to what should be taken due to two angles : in the first place ; it is to trace an issue a researcher finds fertile ground with his colleagues to dig deep into and reconnoiter from different vantage points ; in the second it is of a universal angle the journal shares with the other scientific adjudicated journals with the same bloodstream ; a researcher takes liberty in choosing a perspective under the journal conditions scientifically , conveniently and procedurally.

The main axis of the present edition gives much shrifts to the cultural repertoire of Imam Ali Al-Sajad

Ibin Al-Hussein Ibin Abi Talib (Peace be upon them); it surveys four research studies tackling Imam Al-Sajad text from various vantage points as entitled: Eloquence in Promulgating: Imam Zein Al-`Abadeen Texts .Yet the universal axis manipulates nine studies whose quills roam multitudinous knowledge fields in different humanist majors.

As done in the previous editions, the current one surges into dawnbreak , whose mission is to serve the scientific fact, whose intension is to gain the divine acceptance and whose people in charge deem that it is to be wreathed with the bless of this glorified spot and sacred niches of Mohammed posterity (Peace be upon them). The last we do supplicate is to praise Him, the Lord of the worlds and peace be upon Mohammed and his dignified posterity.
