Mohammedan Thought: Tributary and Quill to Authenticated Academic Research

The academic research endeavours to observe intellectuality, via induction and deduction, and to show the epistemic visions and targets the Mohammedan thought cuddling the treasures of sciences, knowledge the academic lesson never derails from and imbibes human, intellectual and scientific sources. Therefore all the fields tackle the documents of the prophet and his progeny extending the horizon of man worldwide.

Consequently, the research absorbs the pith of truth, precision and objectivity from these theoretical visions rendered into sapient content and solidified with thought. Such visions are to manifest their scientific and epistemic angles and indispensable to be prominent in the field in focus on the scale of human, scientific and intellectual importance. That is why it reverts into the thought of the Quran, as a source of all purity , chastity and nobility, to prove credibility , doctrines and epistemic and scientific contemplations that regard man as pivotal and doing good as the noblest . For surety, the narratives of the infallibles manifest the evidences of eloquence and adroit stylistics to have aesthetic and scientific aspects. Moreover, they take hold of sapient content of epistemic and intellectual perception the historical memory maintains through its various stages. The Mohammedan heritage is regarded as a fount of linguistic, syntactic, morphological and eloquent rules and buttressed by elegant stylistics to prove itself utter and serene through elucidation and explication. More apparently, it grows to be a rapport to communicate as it is authentic and genuine to be a source of guidance second to the Glorious Quran.
